

Parental Agreement

Please read the following statements carefully and indicate your agreement by signing and returning with your student application.

- I hereby pledge that I will pay my financial obligations to Stoneybrooke Christian Schools on the dates due.
- I give permission for my child to take part in all school activities, including sports and school-sponsored trips away from the school premises, and absolve the school from liability to me or my child at school or during any school activity.
- If I must withdraw my child, I will give the school two weeks notice. Should I fail to give such notice, I will be liable for an additional month's tuition. With or without notice, should I withdraw my child(ren), I forfeit any tuition, fees or family assessments that have been paid.
- I understand that the school reserves the right to expel any child who fails to comply with the established regulations and discipline or whose financial obligation remains unpaid after the due date.
- I understand that once my child is accepted for enrollment I am obligated for the first month's tuition unless notification is given to the school no less than seven days before the opening of school that my child will not be attending.
- I understand and agree that continued enrollment and re-enrollment of my child(ren) in Stoneybrooke Christian Schools is dependent on my parental support of the school, its staff and its policies.
- In cases of separation or divorce, each parent is solely responsible for any and all charges incurred for the benefit of his or her child(ren). Should the parents desire to split payments of that account, they may do so between themselves and then remit payment in full to Stoneybrooke. Only one tuition account will be opened for each family.
- Stoneybrooke Christian Schools' biblical role is to work in conjunction with the home, to mold students to be Christ-like. Of necessity, this involves the school's understanding and belief of what qualities or characteristics exemplify a Christ-like life. The school reserves the right, within its sole discretion, to refuse admission of an applicant or to discontinue enrollment of a student if the atmosphere of conduct within a particular home or the activities of the student are counter to, or are in opposition to, the biblical lifestyle the school teaches. This includes but is not limited to participating in, supporting, or condoning sexual immorality, homosexual activity, or bisexual activity; promoting such practices, or being unable to support the moral principles of the school. (See Leviticus 20:13, Romans 1:26-32, 1 Timothy 1:8-11, and Titus 2:11-14).
- I agree to uphold and support the high academic standards of the school by providing a place at home for my child to study and to give my child encouragement in the completion of homework assignments.
- I understand that the standards of Stoneybrooke Christian Schools do not tolerate profanity, obscenity in word or action, dishonor towards God and the Word of God, disrespect to the personnel of the school or other students or continued disobedience to the established policies of the school.

- I agree to authorize the school to employ such discipline as it deems wise and expedient for my child(ren). The discipline may include time outs, after school detentions, suspensions or expulsion. In the case of a serious discipline issue a conference with parents will be required and further discipline measures may be implemented.
- Should legal action, for any reason, be taken against Stoneybrooke Christian Schools or any employee or agent thereof, on my child's behalf and the school or its agent not be found at fault, I agree to pay any attorney fees, court fees, damages or other costs that Stoneybrooke Christian Schools or its agents should incur to defend itself against such action.

I have read the terms stated above and agree to them and to accept all the regulations of the school.
