

Stoneybrooke Christian Schools Seeks to Employ Teachers with the Following Characteristics:

- ◆ Good Communicator
Communicates well with students, parents, colleagues and administration; effectively uses a variety of ways to communicate; communicates frequently and promptly; initiates communication when needed; is a good listener
- ◆ Self-Starter
Takes initiative; desires to grow professionally; continually evaluates effectiveness of programs and takes the necessary steps toward improvement and/or change; implements new knowledge and strategies in the classroom
- ◆ Organized
Manages time and scheduling of lessons well; sets up classroom routines and practices that enhance learning and teaching; establishes a positive, productive learning environment, effectively manages classroom procedures, student behavior, and organization of physical space
- ◆ Servant's Heart
Strives to help others and makes himself/herself available in both small and big ways whenever and wherever needed; is flexible; sees a need and meets it; looks for ways to be a blessing to others
- ◆ Values Christian Education
Views teaching as a calling and desires ministry in a Christian school; integrates faith and learning
- ◆ Able to Motivate and Inspire
Creates opportunities for students to flourish; encourages students, parents and colleagues; instills a love of learning; both low and high achieving students strive to do their very best and are motivated to reach for high standards; inspires students to be passionate about living for Christ
- ◆ Values Relationships
Understands importance of relationships within the school community; is approachable; relates well to others; is a team player and works well with others
- ◆ Enthusiastic
Meets and accomplishes everyday tasks with joy and passion; maintains a positive outlook regardless of circumstances; the love of Jesus is evident in their speech, action and reaction; causes others to be positive and enthusiastic as well
- ◆ Creative
Is willing to try new things; has innovative ideas; inspires the imagination of students; incorporates techniques and strategies that get students to think for themselves